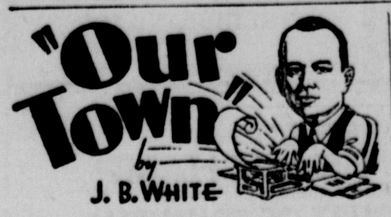
VOLUME NUMBER 87 | CAMERON, MILAM COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JULY 18, 1946 | EIGHT PAGES TODAY | NUMBER 12



Almost a year ago the Cameron Planning Board recommended the adoption of a Home Rule Charter. Last night the Chamber of Commerce sponsored a talk by Curtis Morris of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce on the advantages of a change in the form of government. The Planning Board did not recommend a Commission Form of Government, but pointed out a number of forms that may be adopted. We quote from the Planning Board report: "Cameron will be 100 years old in 1946. The city limits were surveyed out in 1846 and so far as this board is informed the corporate limits are the same and the style of government has never changed. The city operates under the general law and therefore its powers and authority are restricted. This Board has considered the advantages of a Home Rule Charter and they are many. We cannot find a single objection to Home Rule, in fact such a rule is the essence of local self government and of Democracy. We urge upon the Council and the Mayor the immediate appointment of a Charter Commission of 15 members as provided by law and that the Commission be instructed to write and submit a proposed Charter for Home Rule in Cameron and that the same be submitted for the vote of the people at the earliest possible date. In the adoption of a Home Rule Charter, the city may adopt any form of government it desires. General Law Cities are definitely tied down to the provisions of the General Law while Home Rule Cities generally speaking, can do anything which is provided in the City Charter so long as the Charter is not in conflict with the laws of the state and the constitution. As a comparison of how antiquated our present system is, we call your attention to the comment by Texas League of Municipalities: A Home Rule City may provide for the passage of an ordinance prohibiting the running at large of chickens, whereas there is no method by which a General Law city can legally enforce such an ordinance." Home rule would give Cameron means by which to annex territory and to extend city limits; to enact and enforce sanitary regulations; a police department; fixing the tax rates at a figure less than the present level of $2.50 as a re-

BILL MORRISON HOME FOR ATTORNEY RACE

W. A. (Bill) Morrison finally returned to his home in Milam county on the 26th of June after an absence of four years and three months, during which time he served in the army and in allied activities.

Soon after the attack by Japan upon Pearl Harbor, forcing this country into war, Morrison resigned as Prosecuting Attorney for Milam county and also resigned as President of the District and County Attorneys' Association of Texas, and as a volunteer ,enlisted in the army as a private. At that time the vacancy created by his resignation was filled by appointment of the Governor.

Morrison advanced to the rank of Tech. Sergeant during the long months of service in the war zone and received four battle stars for participation in each of the four campaigns of Central Europe, Normandy, Northern France and the Rhineland.

Late in the fall of 1945 Morrison returned from three years in Europe and paid a short visit to Milam county, at that time making it known that he would be a candidate for the position which he held before the war.

In view of his inability to get back to Milam county early in the Spring, as he had hoped, Morrison has been unable to visit in the homes of his former constituents, but is now actively engaged in seeing as many of them as possible and soliciting their support in the coming election.

WHEEL CHAIRS PLACED BY VETERANS COUNCIL

Four wheel chairs and four pairs of crutches have been received from the Capper Publications by the Veterans Council of Milam county, and are now on display in Cameron, Rockdale, Milano and Thorndale.

The Cameron chair and crutches were placed on display early Wednesday in the show window at The Herald by Emmett Streetman, 11th District Commander, and Jess Thompson, Veterans Administration representative for Milam county.

The chairs and crutches are made available through the Capper publications and were obtained recently. It was said here Tuesday that the chair in Rockdale is already in use.

These wheel chairs are available to anyone who needs them. They can be used for a period of 60 days without cost. These chairs are expensive and hard to get and are the most satisfactory means whereby patients can be moved about.

The crutches are adjustable types and will be important in their service to those who meet with accidents and have to hobble about.

Anyone in Cameron or this area of the county who needs a wheel chair may contact Emmett Streetman.

This service to cripples and sick people is a commendable example of concern for those who need these facilities and the Veterans Council has done a fine thing in this county.

WAR ON RATS IS TAKEN TO THE RURAL AREAS

It is a difficult problem to overcome the nuisances, hazards., and unsanitary conditions caused by infestation of rats in food establishments, business houses, homes, barns, and corn cribs, said Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer.

It is going to be necessary for every person in the state to share responsibility in assisting the cities and State Department of Health in the destruction of rodents to control typhus fever, food poisoning, and ratbite fever. These are all definitely on the increase in the state. The cost of the typhus fever and rodent control program is not exceeding high, and from an economical standpoint, the owner would be reimbursed in the saving of food, grains, feed and merchandise. He would have the satisfaction of knowing that he was not feeding and harboring rodents which are the carriers of dreaded typhus fever.

When you consider the fact that there are at this time nine million rats in the State of Texas, and they are increasing every day, it is evident an epidemic could easily occur at any time. In 1932, we had two hundred twenty-seven cases of typhus fever and fifteen deaths from the disease. It has increased in a period of ten years until, in 1942, we had one thousand two hundred four cases in the states and fifty-six deaths. At the expiration of 1945 we had very close to two thousand cases reported

$8500 TO BE PAID OUT OF THE BOARD SURPLUS

Increased pay for Cameron school teachers was voted by the Board of Trustees Thursday night.

The Board dipped into its surplus of cash and authorized new contracts involving a total of some $8500.

Dr. Clifford G. Swift, President of the Board, said that it was necessary to dig deeply into the treasury balance to make this increase possible; that the Board realizes the amount of increases are not enough but it is a step in the right direction and that the Board will do all in its power to reach a higher standard on teacher pay in the Cameron schools.

The first step taken by the Board was to adopt the state aid basis of pay and from that figure proceeded with another increase. After the salaries had been fixed at the state standard minimum the Board then authorized an increase on a scale of $13.50 per year for each year up to 10 that a teacher has been a member of the faculty. This latter amount is in addition to the general advance granted when minimum state standard was met. The new schedule of pay makes the lowest salary among white teachers $1296.

In the negro schools the salary boost began with a flat 20 per cent increase in all brackets and then the rule of $13.50 per year for each year a teacher has been with the board up to 10 years, was voted. The lowest salary among negro teachers is now $918 .

It is the first time in the history of the schools that a state minimum standard plus has been voted by the board on teacher pay.

The school board has performed admirably in meting this crisis in teacher pay. To do so it was necessary to utilize a portion of the customary surplus carried forward each year by the board and which fortunately had accumulated.

Dr. Swift's statement that the Board feels the amounts are still far below what they should be is a hopeful sign for the future to build a better faculty and to carry out an educational program of the highest possible standard in the community.

Hawaiian Bride Thinks Folklore Music is Corny; Turns Radio on Daily to Catch Dream Melodies From Honolulu; Married Milano Navy Man in '45

Texas folklore music is rather corny and Texas weather is worse.

That was the only adverse comment Mrs. Paul Steel had to make late Tuesday while in Cameron. In Hawaii the weather is always the same, never cold and never hot. When reminded that it had once been 10 below zero in Cameron she could hardly believe it.

Mrs. Steel is the former Miss Barbara Miyzaki of Honolulu in Hawaii. Her father and mother are native Japanese and came out to the islands where she was born. She is a native-born American citizen but full Japanese nationality.

Every afternoon Mrs. Steel turns on the radio for the dream melodies of her native Hawaii. Their home was near Waikiki Beach, famed resort area about six miles from Pearl Harbor.

She came by boat to San Francisco. It was her first visit to the mainland. There she saw for the first time an industrial crisis. It was the railroad strike. She fared better than the average traveler, however, and reached Milano on May 18 where she was received in the home of Mrs. Opal Steel, mother of Paul Steel.

Mrs. Steel is typically a brunette and very pretty. In Hawaii she attended American schools and speaks English well. Customs here are not so strange but Texas is different. Tall talk amuses her and cooking puzzles her some. In her country they eat more fruits and vegetables. Here too much meat. She doesn't like tamales. Watermelons sell for 30c a pound in Hawaii, some $3.00 for a melon we can buy here for 50c. Mrs. Steel is 19.

Paul Steel, Fireman first class, United States Navy, met his wife in Hawaii while he was stationed there. They were married on August 4, 1945. She came on ahead of her husband and he met her in Milano. Steel spent three years in the navy.

"I am for Dr. Rainey"

BY J. FRANK DOBIE

I am for Homer Rainey for govenor because he has a positive program for the advancement of human welfare in Texas. It is a program thought out and based on a wealth of facts. It is the most far-reaching and the most carefully planned program that has ever been offered to the people of Texas during their hundred years of statehood.

I am for Rainey for the very reason that certain oil millionaire and corporation lawyers have been against him from the beginning. Boiled down to its elemental justice, their reason lies in the fact that Rainey has eyes in the front of his head instead of in the back of his head. He knows that the normal condition of any energetic people living in this scientific, mechanized age is change. He knows that the businesses of government are very complex.

He is not afraid of change. He knows that the only way to preserve capitalistic system is for a people's democrary and what is called the government to adjust itself to social, economic and scientific changes. A man may remain as steady as the North Star to the principles of human rights and liberties and to the democratic ideal of government and yet advocate changes without being what opponents to change call "a communist."

Indeed, when men in a republic resist all change and call every new idea "subversive," they betray democracy. They betray it as positively as any advocate of overthrowing the government would betray it.

Fifty years ago corporation lawyers fighting the national income tax before the Supreme Court of the U. S. choked down in holy indignation against this "communistic march" and "socialistic horror," as they called it. It took nineteen years to get the national income tax legalized. Where would the United States of America be today without it. The mighty monopolies that fought it

Anita Ruth Knipp And Ensign Albert Scofield Married Here July 7

First Presbyterian church was the scene for the marriage of Miss Anita Ruth Knipp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Knipp, to Ensign Albert Scofield, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Scofield of Cotulla on July 7.

Rev. E. O. Harrell, pastor read the double-ring service at 5:30. Floor baskets of white tube roses, phlox and oleander against a background of greenery flanked by lighted tapers in seven-branched candelabra, decorated the altar.

While the guests were being seated Roy McDermott, organist, played nuptial music. Mrs. W. G. Harsha sang "I Love You Truly."

Miss Eleanor Knipp attended her sister as maid of honor, and Misses Laurita Wilson and Doris Ruth Petruy were bridesmaids. Mr. Scofield attended his son as best man, and Jno. Ray Wallace and Bonner McLane were ushers.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of chantilly lace over taffeta, fashioned with a basque bodice, cap sleeves and a long full skirt. Her finger-tip length veil of illusion was attached to a Mary Queen of Scot cap. She wore long lace mittens, and carried a bouquet of white dahlias showered with french net. For something old and borrowed she wore a crescent shaped seed pearl pin belonging to the Scofield family which was a gift from the groom. She carried an old English shilling tied in blue, which belongs to her aunt, Mrs. H. Vogelsang of San Antonio.

The maid of honor and brides maids were gowned in white dotted net and carried bouquets of white gladioli.

Mrs. Knipp chose a sheer printed silk of blue and gray for her daughter's wedding. She wore black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Scofield was dressed in a printed aqua dress compemented by black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony the bridal party was honored at a reception in the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table centered with a bowl of tube roses and greenery, and lighted by tapers, held the three-tiered wedding cake.

Miss Eleanor Knipp served the cake and Misses Minnie Marie Vogelsang and Elba Jean Colburn presided at the punch bowl. Miss Edith Pattillo was in charge of the bride's book.

For the wedding trip to Reynosa, Mexico, the bride chose a tailored suit of smoke wool with hat to match with a brown veil. Her accessories were green.

Mrs. Scofield was born and reared in this county and graduated from Yoe High school and attended the University of Texas. For the past year she had been employed at McCloskey General Hospital in Temple.

Mr. Scofield was a former resident of Cameron and graduated at Yoe High school. He also attended the University of Texas. He is now serving with the Maritime service.

Out-of-town guests attending the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Scofield and son, Mike, of Cotulla; Mr. and Mrs. H. Vogelsang of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Franklin of Belton, Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Young of Austin, Dr. and Mrs. Cornwall of Marlin, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Yardley of Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Wallace and Mr. and Mrs E. Vogelsang, Jr., of Waco, and E. G. Blissard of Goose Creek.

sult of having reached a population of more than 5000; it would enable the city to overcome limitations of authority with reference to the acquiring of property and the disposition of same, and many other restrictions now imposed by general law authority. Under present authority the tax rate can be increased $1.00 or to a total of $2.50 exclusive of school needs. Charters can be changed each two years an dthereby meet changing conditions. The Board has read with interest provisions of a Home Rule Charter adopted by the city of Midland on November 5, 1941. This charter we recommend to your consideration. It is our earnest conviction that we cannot modernize our city while we still remain under the General Law status. It is time to go forward."

"Do you believe the university is a godless, communistic, unpatriotic and immoral institution? If you do, then say so publicly and let us see your proof. If you do not, then join me in denouncing these vicious attempts to befoul the name of our state university." So spoke Dr. Homer P. Rainey, candidate for governor in Austin Saturday. An increasing number of Texans are wondering what lies behind the fight made on Dr. Rainey while he was president of the university. Was it academic freedom as J. Frank Dobie so well puts it, or was it economic imperialism as events seem now to prove? Out of this controversy has emerged a full-fledged political campaign. Also we have the vague charges of communism. A stock phrase of those who want to put the dollar mark on every decent thing in this country is to cry communism when you fail to do as they say. Japan and Germany had thought police. Mental slavery is the most degrading species of bondage. Fourteen leading educators have left the university. Did they all quit for the same reason Dr. Rainey quit? If they did and it begins to look that way, it is high time academic freedom was restored. It is also high time the people of Texas took stock of what may be happening to their university and to their economic welfare as well. Dr. Rainey is looming larger on the Texas political horizon. It might be a wholesome thing to elect him governor to carry on the liberal tradition that is forever the life blood of Democracy.

The city of Marlin has just extended a franchise to a light company for 20 years. From all accounts the city officials there were conscious enough to make a deal for the people. A modern white way system for the mercantile area of the city is provided and a new and very low rate for street lighting and municipal uses is a condition of the extension of the franchise. The city will save $2500 a year over the amount it is now paying for street lights and gets the white way thrown into the bargain. A 2 per cent revenue tax was also a part of the deal and that will bring the city $2400 more in "new city revenues making a net profit to the city of $4900 per year besides the vast commercial benefit to the city in having the business area brilliantly lighted." The provisions outlined in this proposal was made effective in the proposed new franchise ordinance extending the permit of the company to furnish electric service in Marlin for a period of 20 years. Cameron once had an option and an opportunity to buy its light and water plants. The city council at that time looked backward instead of forward. The result, a dark town and having to buy water for its sewer system. Cameron is a tenant, has paid out untold thousands for rent. If city officials generally ran their business as they do that of the people they would be insolvent in six months. Cameron is so poorly lighted that our civic leaders carry kerosene lanterns when they leave home at night. When I run for Mayor in 1948 I am going to pledge every citizen a flashlight.

Nothing succeeds like success and all the community loves a hard worker. This is flowers for the living day with this column. The bouquet goes to Albert McCullin, better known to his great host of friends as "Mack." It is about Mack's place we wish to write in this daily spotlight. On Saturday Mack's celebrated his 8th Anniversary in Cameron with a formal opening of his new service station and store. Throughout the day many came to view the modern place and to congratulate Mack on his progress. The new store was designed by Mr. McCullin. He was his own architect. The site of this new store is on what may have in the past been regarded as a waste place but in its setting it is almost a civic center, for Mack has wrought well in landscaping the site and his new building is one of the most beautiful of its kind in central Texas. This new store not only adds much to the value of the city but to the trade is also a distinctive advance. Thus in expressing his faith in the future of the city Mack has achieved much in advancing the facilities for serving his patrons and may well expect the people to show their appreciation for what he has done.

Consider the old people. Each month their checks are cut and their pension money becomes less effective on an inflation market. Do you recall how members of the legislature urged the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment fixing a limit on the amount that can be paid out in any given year? Remember that amount is fifty million dollars. When the average number on the roll is 200 thousand the average pension check will be $21. When the average check is $21 that means many aged people will receive $7 while others get $40. A few of us tried to tell the Representative that such would result. Many old people are now going to their representatives and are asking why their pensions are cut. They do not tell the old people it is because we put a limit on you. They tell them the legislature is going to remedy that situation and if need be we will take off the constitutional limit. The truth is that when powerful forces of wealth want to cripple the security program which was won by liberal thought, they utilize those who have influence. In Texas there are two schools of thought: One commercial, the other humane. The politician is a jackal. He can even weep when he talks about the plight of the aged. In Austin he is often a "statesman" with dishonest dollars in his pockets. Pensions should be paid on a flexible policy keyed to economic changes and limitations should be removed. To do this we will have to elect a different kind of representative and governor. Money will have to be provided to pay the full constitutional amount to every aged person in Texas alike then the rule of need could be applied on added funds. Something will have to be done to stop the debasing policy of frightening the aged people with cut offs and investigations. Old age assistance must be removed from politics and be placed on a permanent, continuing, accumulative basis to provide for all and prevent injustice to many.

(From Daily Herald July 5)

Yesterday Belton entertained thousands in its annual 4th of July celebration. Now, there is nothing unusual in a good Belton Independence Day celebration, but the purpose for which the celebration proceeds are to be used is worthy of exemplification. Some time back the people of Belton planned a memorial to their War dead. It is to be a memorial Home to commemorate those who died in the wars and to serve as a meeting place and activity center. The project is sponsored by the American Legion in Belton and co-operating are the Rotary Club, Lions Club, Chamber of Commerce and Veterans of Foreign Wars. Cooperation plus leadership in a community get things done. Already the Belton project has reached the blue print stage. The building is to cost $25,000. The main auditorium will accomodate large gatherings. A lounge room will be especially designed for luncheons. The Cameron Planning Board in October 1945 recommended a memorial Auditorium, Library and Meuseum to our War dead. We quote from the Planning Board report: "No doubt one of the tragedies of this great conflict, is the fact, and this is difficult to say, is that so few of us know that the war is real and personal and bitter. These boys of ours have paid the great price. It seems incredible that we could emerge victorious from two world conflicts with no permanent symbol that we either loved them or appreciated their sacrifices." The cost of the Cameron memorial was to be $38,000. The Planning Board Report was never made public. It was suppressed. It contains many things good for our community. Our leaders do strange and often what seem stupid things. In a small town hatred springs up quickly against those who dream of a better city. In the Chamber of Commerce we have what we call a Stop and Wait Committee. When progress seems certain the project is refered to the proper committee and our status quo is preserved.

Cameron's first court house was a cabin type affair built in 1846 and the present building was completed in 1895. So far as known officials have operated pretty much the same for 100 years. Today we want to make an appeal in behalf of the clerks and employes and all the personnel who staff the county's business. Bold it may be to make a suggestion, but we like to pioneer. We think the offices in the court house should be closed on Saturday afternoon to give the employes time off. You could hardly find a county in Texas where employes are required to stay on the job on Saturday afteroon. Almost universally it is the rule to close all public business at noon on Saturday. Tradition is strong and sometimes holds us back. We do things in the same old way every day until the habit is so strong progress passes us by and if we awake at all it is too late. It is not so much the urge to do things a little more in keeping with the times, that we make this suggestion, but to give faithful and efficient employes a break in this modern world in which we live. We feel sure that officials will agree. There is no good reason why it has not been done before except that no one has seemed to get around to the idea. If hand shaking on Saturday afternoon is still necessary to good government, let the official stay on the job while his employes get a well earned rest from having done all the work during the week.

Cameron has missed the bus again. The Stop and Wait Committee was in its best form. It is another case of our leadership failing us. The RVOS was in session in Temple. The important matter of selecting a permanent site for headquarters was to be decided. Cameron had a chance but let is pass by. When the committee was receiving delegations offering advantages from Temple, Taylor, LaGrange and other places, no one appeared for Cameron although the matter had been discussed and urged for several months. The best we could do was a telegram which was received too late to be of any effect. Cameron and Milam county have two outstanding officers of this organization. They are F. A. Marek, first vice president, and Jos. Slavik, Sr., secretary. Cameron did have some definite advantages and in addition the county has one of the major volumes of insurance in the company now doing 20 million a year. Mr. Slavik will move to Temple in January 1947. We will lose him as a citizen. The headquarters of the RVOS will be in Temple for at least four years and perhaps permanently. The RVOS has money to invest in a permanent home. Cameron and our city business leaders have failed as they have so often failed to display any semblance of interest in the welfare of the community. Worst of all we failed to back up Mr. Marek and Mr. Slavik who wanted the headquarters in Cameron. The Chamber of Commerce, so far as we know, never at any time became interested in this important matter.

The importance of this work can hardly be overestimated. The County Health Unit has directed rodent extermination in all the cities and towns of the county and under Mr. Lester's direction the work will be extended to the rural areas.

First Baptist Church Practices As Well As Preaches Christianity

Believeing that the day has come when Christianity must be practiced as well as preached, the First Baptist church, Cameron, is endeavoring to do just that, according to Rev. Lester L. Morriss, the new pastor of the church.

The pastor is leading the church next Sunday in a great World Relief offering to be sent to the various suffering countries around the world. This is in cooperation with the Baptist churches of Texas and all Southern Baptist churches throughout the South. Rev. Morriss states that Southern Baptists are planning to raise $3,500,000 for World Relief and rehabilitation.

The Baptist church here in Cameron has set $600 as their goal in this worthy cause. The money will be sent to the various missionaries serving Baptists around the world and will be distributed by them "on the spot" in proportion to the need.

The pastor declared that the people were looking forward with joy to the opportunity to put Christianity into practice, and that people are counting it a pleasure to give to a cause so worthy as to put bread into the mouths of starving people.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Life" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 21.

The Golden Text is :"I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord . . . God is the Lord, which hath shewed us light" (Psalms 118: 17,27).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?" (Psalms 27:1).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Because Life is God, Life must be eternal, self-existent. Life is the everlasting I AM, the Being who was and is and shall be, whom nothing can erase" (page 289).

If your child is not on the official transfer list, it is possible that it may cost more coney.

Cameron schools are very anxious to have your children attend here. A cordial welcome is extended to the patrons and students from neighboring districts to come to Cameron where a great, modern educational program is being developed and expanded.

Mr. Hanes, in discussing the importance of the transfer, said that there are so many changes being made regarding school money that it is highly important that students be officially transfered.

"Attend to this at once," said Mr. Hanes.

J. W. TREADAWAY IS BURIED HERE SUNDAY

Funeral services for J. W. Treadaway were held at 4 p. m. Sunday, July 14 from the Marek-Burns Funeral Home in Cameron, conducted by Rev. C. W. Sanders, pastor of the Hearne Baptist church. Interment was made in the Oak Hill cemetery with the Marek-Burns Funeral Home directing arrangements.

J. W. Treadaway was born in Winona, Mississippi on July 12, 1871. Ten years later, in 1881, he came to Texas and had made his home in this state since that time.

In 1898 Mr. Treadaway volunteered for the Spanish-American war and served six years in the Philippines. He was an active member of the Baptist church for many years until his health failed and he was sent to the Veterans Hospital in Fayetteville, Arkansas where he died at 4:45 p. m. on July 11.

Mr. Treadaway was never married. His father and mother, two brothers and one sister are dead. Only one brother survives and he is J. M. Treadaway of Cameron, who is also a Spanish-American War veteran. Five nephews survive.

The funeral here Sunday was under the auspices of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion, and pallbearers were selected from these groups.

would have such a strangle-hold on government that a farmer's vote, a stenographer's vote, a housewife's vote would count no more than the note of some starving child in one of Hitler's horrible concentration camps.

About twelve years ago the American Congress, urged on by Franklin D. Roosevelt, the greatest humanitarian this country has produced, appropriated money for old-age assistance. Again the holy yells of "communism" went up.

Yet today the changes brought about through income tax and old-age assistance laws are generally accepted as necessary to the American system of democratic government.

I have been a citizen of Austin for a long while. I can remember back to the days when lobbyists representing the powerful sulphur and oil corporations were so strong that they prevented any tax at all from being levied on oil, gas and sulphur. The rancher on a few drouth sections west of the Pecos, the farmer of a few acres of sweet potato sand in East Texas, the keeper of a country store, and the mechanic who owned his own little garage were actually paying directly more taxes than the State was deriving from its stupendous quantities of sulphur, gas and oil at their sources. The rancher, the farmer, the storekeeper and the mechanic had no "retained" lawyers or lobbyists to keep the legislature, especially the senate, "informed" concerning their interests.

Now Rainey proposes really to tax these natural resources in order to give Texas a decent school system, a first-class health program, a good system of farm-to-market roads, an adequate welfare program. And the yell has gone up that he is a "communist." It is an old, old smoke-screen yell. When Jim Hogg took after the blood-sucking rates that railroads were then able to exact from the people, they called him every bad name catalogued between Hell and Haw River.

There bave always been men in the public life of America who honestly believed in the people and who passionately stood for their rights and liberties. I am for Homer Rainey because he belongs to this tradition. It is the tradition of Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln, Jim Hogg and Frankline D. Roosevelt. Homer Rainey is no more of a communist than Jim Hogg was. He is as honest as daylight. His intentions are as visible as those of Flying-Fortress turning loose its dynamite on a Krupp munitions factory.

MARLIN WHITE WAY IS OKEYED BY THE CITY

Marlin.—Marlin's business streets are soon to be brightly lighted with a white way system according to an agreement in the form of an ordinance passed by the city council here Tuesday night.

A modern white-way lighting system for the downtown area, a new and very cheap rate for street lighting and other municipal uses, and a two per cent street rental payable to the city on lighting and power revenues in Marlin are among the benefits listed in the proposal made by the company several weeks ago and which was accepted by the city council at its regular meeting on July 9.

With the new white-way system added to the present street lighting facilities, the cheap rate offered is estimated to save the city approximately $2500 per year under what it now pays without the white-way system. The two per cent revenue tax will bring the city another $2400 annually in new city revenues, making a net benefit to the city of approximately $4900 per year besides the vast commercial benefit to the city in having the business area brilliantly lighted.

S. D. Williford, district manager of the Southwestern Electric Service company said the white-way system would be the latest in design.

The provisions outlined in this proposal are made effective in the proposed new franchise ordinance, extending the permit of the company to furnish electric service in Marlin for a period of 20 years from the date of passage of the ordinance.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burns are in Colorado to enjoy a few days vacation. Bill has had no rest since he was discharged from the navy. He returned to his bunsiness here, the Marek-Burns Funeral Home and insurance agency. They expect to return to their home within the next two weeks.

Mrs. R. E. Wise of Maysfield is among the patients in Newton Memorial Hospital. She has been quite ill but is improving.

EQUALIZATION BOARD IS MEETING IN CAMERON

Cameron's Board of Equalization met Monday morning and heard from Mayor A. W. McCullin a plea to equalize tax values in the city and to make a careful survey to determine where additional revenues may be had for the mounting expenses of the government.

Mayor McCullin favors a certified system of tax values for taxation porposes and offered to take the members of the Board to Taylor where a recent survey was made.

The Board here is composed of Miss Lillian Atkinson, H. B. McClellen and Albert Collins.

Cameron's system of tax values are so antiquated they can never be made to work equitably until they have had the benefit of a thorough and scientific renovating. If the present board, it was said, follows the beaten path of predecessors there is little hope for the equalization of taxes as provided by the constitution.

Properties in high earning brackets in nearly every city in America escape taxes while properties like real estate and merchandise have been made to pay the burden. However in Cameron there never has been any abuse of values either on real estate or on inventories. The city is supposed to follow the rule of 75 per cent on values but it was known and has been known for some time that the scale is nearer 50 per cent.

Boll Weevil Threaten Cotton Crop in County

The heavy boll weevil infestation in Milam county has caused damage to the cotton crop, and there is no sign of any immediate relief from this insect, states J. W. Stufflebeme, Jr., County Agent. Cotton has been checked in almost every community in the county, and the ifestation is running from 30 to 75 per cent.

Farmers are again urged to poison their cotton with calcium arsenate at the rate of 5 to 7 pounds per acre. The supply of calcium is very limited and the poison needed should be purchased at the earliest possible date. One of the local wholesale grocery firms will receive a carload of poison within a week or ten days and farmers will be notified of its arrival. Although the cotton flea hopper infestation is about over, it is suggested that farmers use the sulphur-calcium arsenate mixture if the straight calcium arsenate is not available. The cost will be greater but if approximately 15 pounds of the mixture is used, enough calcium arsenate will be available to control the boll weevil.

Farmers are requested to contact the County Agent's office for help with their poisoning program.

Let's Talk Agriculture

BY BILL ARTHUR

The poultry business in Milam county is far more important than some may realize. To be most successful with a flock of hens some definite management practices must be carried out. A flock of pullets that are to begin laying in August or September should be wormed approximately six weeks before the laying period begins. The writer has found worms to be rather prevalent in pullets at the present time. Any of the recommended poultry worm capsules are good. By worming pullets now they will lay until the first molting period without being affected with worms.

STATE DEMO CHAIRMAN VISITS HERE TUESDAY

State Democratic Chairman Harry L. Seay of Dallas, was in Cameron for a brief visit Tuesday.

George Sagreant, former mayor of Dallas and a prominent lawyer of that city, was accompanying Mr. Seay on his tour.

The Democratic Chairman was inquiring into the political situation here and was happy to learn that Milam county Democrats settle their differences at the polls and have always supported the nominees. In Dallas and other counties the Democrats have to fight for everything.

Mr. Seay said that the Texas Regulars plan to capture the state convention and to do this they must get a majority at the precinct and county conventions. The Texas Regulars who bolted in 1944 and sought the defeat of the National ticket are controlled by vicious commercial interests and Republicans and are well financed and will continue the fight.

Mr. Seay was assured that no such division of sentiment exists in Milam county; that the Democrats here have always been loyal to the party and the nominees.

WAR ON RATS

in Texas for the year. The cost of supporting the rat population in Texas each year has reached the staggering total of one hundred twenty million dollars. It also requires the combined efforts of two hundred-sixty-five thousand families to raise and produce enough food to supply and maintain the rat population of the United States.

In connection with these facts that are herewith submitted for your consideration, we do not hesitate to advise you frankly that it is your duty and the duty of every person in the United States to help destroy the rats and help suppress the sickness, economic loss and unsanitary conditions caused by them.

All of the business premises in the incorporated cities and all of the unincorporated towns in this county have been treated for typhus control by dusting all infested business premises with DDT for the purpose of killing the fleas on the rats. The fleas are the transmitting agent of the fever from the rat to people. At least one week or longer after dusting with DDA the premises are poisoned with a liquid poison identified as 1080. This dusting and poisoning treatment should be repeated avery four months to give protection from typhus fever and keep rat infestation down to a minimum. The poisoning of rats without previous dusting for fleas is not beneficial in regards to typhus. The flea is the carrier of the disease, and must be destroyed before the rat is killed.

Walter H. Lester of Cameron has been selected by the Commissioners Court of Milam county to carry this program to the farms of the county and to the residences of the city. Mr. Lester has been thoroughly trained and is qualified to do the dusting and poisoning for typhus and rodent control. Having taken training in Waco under experts for the past month, Mr. Lester is fully equipped to do this work. This program, which is a continuation of the present Typhus Control Program, is sponsored by the local governing agencies, and is supervised and indorsed by the State Health Department and the Cameron-Milam County Health Unit. The State Department of Health, with the cooperation of the U. S. Public Health Service, is making this program available by furnishing the material for dusting. Other material used in this program will be furnished by Mr. Lester. This will necessitate his charging a nominal fee for this work, which will be profitable to property owners over this county and city. For this service contact Walter H. Lester, P. O. Box 189, Cameron; Judge Jeff T. Kemp, County Judge; or J. W. Stufflebeme, County Agent.
